

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Inductive Grammar Chart
(Unit 14, page 117)

GRAMMAR. Would like + infinitive: information questions

Look at these examples of questions with would like.

What would you like to study?	Business.
When would they like to retire?	In June.
Where would he like to go next weekend?	To the movies.
1. Who would you like to marry?	Elena.
2. Who would like to study Italian?	I would!

FIGURE IT OUT . . .

Complete these grammar rules.

- Word order for most information questions is [question word] + _____ + [subject]
+ _____ + _____ + [base form].
- Word order for information questions with Who as the subject is [question word] +
_____ + _____ + [base form].

Look at the answers to the two questions with Who above.

- In Question 1, Elena = _____.
 - I'd like to marry Elena.
 - Elena would like to marry.
- In Question 2, "I would!" = _____.
 - I would like to study Italian.
 - I would study Italian.